Advertising and its Results.

No better means to make one's goods, wares, and mer handise, and their particular merits, known to the world, has ever been discovered than through the medium of newspapers. Whether commercial, political, literary, religious, of whatever sect, party, or authorship, all have their circulation and influence. How many successful business men could be enumerated who owe their high pecuniary position to advertising alone! How many plucky firms are taking the lead, monopolizing certain lines of business, simply by judicious advertising! There is not in existence an article of value that is not worth publishing to the world.

We have now in mind one firm of which we can speak with certainty. We refer to the house of J. R. Barrett & Co., of this city, the gentlemanly and popular proprietors of that indispensable article known as "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." Two years ago this preparation was scarcely known outside of this section; to-day there is not a city, town, or borough this side of the Pacific where this excellent "Renewer" is not known and appreciated, and is, we learn, rapidly supplanting all others. To be sure, this preparation possesses real merit, and is far removed from the thousands of vile nostrums which constantly flood every market. It also received the endorsement of the Agricultural Society in 1866, which awarded its highest premium (a silver medal) ever given in the line of patent remedies. Yet "Barrett's Hair Restorative" owns its success and present position in a great degree to advertising.

Manufacturers and proprietors of any article of merit should not fail to resort to timely and judicious advertising, but at the same time confer a priceless gift upon the community at large by the introduction of their happy and valuable discoveries. —Manchester (N.H.) Mirror.

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil is sold by most of our Druggists and Merchants, and has become an undervalued article in market. This position it has won by its great merit. It cures pain, and the people like it and will have it—one man says his wife would not be without it if the bottles cost $100.

Personal.

Dumas is to visit America in May next.

Congressman Schenck is to establish a new paper at Dayton, with a capital of $100,000.

Gen. O. O. Howard has declined the Presidency of Union College.

Weston commenced his five-thousand mile walk on Tuesday.

Commissioner Rollins has returned to Washington, and his report is in the hands of the printers.

Swinburne is editing an edition of Coleridge's works.

Dan Rice has purchased the Girard (Pa.) Crisis, and is to enlarge it.

The American Minister to Spain—Hon. John P. Hale—is in Paris consulting physicians in regard to his failing health.

An Exchange says that Reverdy Johnson has 40 grandchildren.

Dr. J. H. Leonard left St. Albans on Thursday for Florida, where he intends to spend the winter for the benefit of his health.

Longfellow is at Genoa.

E. F. Perkins, Esq., and family leave St. Albans to-morrow for New York, to take the steamer Alaska, which sails from there for San Francisco on the 9th inst. Mr. P. leaves behind him numerous friends who wish him a prosperous voyage.

WHAT MAKES YOUR HAIR SO BEAUTIFUL? MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

"Their name is Legion," may be applied to the innumerable diseases to which the skin is subject. It would be well for those who are afflicted with apparently incurable ulcers, old sores, erysipelas and eruptions, to use Grace's Celebrated Salve, which cures in a very short time, cuts, burns, scalls, flesh wounds, &c.

CALISAYA BARK.—It is said that Messrs. Drake & Co., (proprietors of the Plantation Bitters) are the largest importers of Calisaya Bark in this country, and that, with the exception of an occasional sale, all they import is used in the compounding of their celebrated Plantation Bitters,—to which they undoubtedly are indebted for their wonderful health-restoring properties. As a Tonic and Ap. etizer, they are not surpassed, and we cheerfully recommend them. All first-class Druggists keep them for sale.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons.

One of the few things that the North and South will probably ever fully agree upon is that "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is not only the best preventive to the hair falling out, but also the finest dressing ever before the public. It richly deserves the "Silver Medal" awarded by the New Hampshire State Fair.—Dubuque Times.
